City owned decks and on-street pay stations accept

The "Park & Stroll" Parking Program (formerly Park & Shop) promotes shopping and commerce in the downtown area by selling discount stamps for reduced parking fees at participating parking decks.

Downtown businesses may purchase the books of stamps and offer their patrons a validated parking option. Individuals can also purchase these stamps and redeem them at any of the City's public parking decks, which honor these Parking Program stamps.

Books of stamps can be purchased at the main office of BB&T on Second Street. For more information, contact the Downtown Winston-Salem Partnership at (336) 354-1500.

DWSP Members can purchase books of 100 stamps for $56. Non-DWSP members can purchase them for $64. Normally, one hour of parking costs $1, so the Park & Stroll Program offers a noticeable value to people who wish to take advantage of it. (1 stamp = 1 hour of parking)
